

Michelle Mackin-Brown

CCCAP Unit Supervisor
Colorado Office of Early Childhood

Michelle Mackin Brown has over 21 years of experience as an administrator in early childhood education, family services, home-based education/home visitation, local school districts and family engagement programs. Currently, Michelle is the Colorado Child Care Assistance Program (CCCAP) Unit Supervisor in the Office of Early Childhood at the Colorado Department of Human Services (CDHS). She is a curriculum developer for the HIPPIY USA national curriculum and the HIPPIY Liberia national curriculum. Prior to joining CDHS, Michelle was an administrator at Clayton Early Learning with oversight of Early Head Start and Head Start programs, Community Partnerships, Home-based Education and Play and Learn. She has taught in infant, toddler and preschool classrooms and has worked as a home visitor. Michelle is an AmeriCorps alum. She received her Bachelor of Science in Land Use, Resource and Environment from Metro State College. Michelle holds a Master of Arts degree in Educational Administration with emphasis in Early Childhood Leadership from University of Denver and is a Buell Early Childhood Leadership Program fellow. Michelle enjoys spending time with her family which includes her husband, adult children, her dog and cat. Michelle has lived in Colorado most of her life and enjoys hiking, camping, rock hounding, traveling and gardening.