

Andrew Williams

Division Director, Planning, Data, and Policy
Office of Child Care, ACF, HHS

Andrew Williams is the Division Director of the Planning, Data, and Policy Division within the Office of Child Care (OCC), Administration for Children and Families, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The OCC administers the Child Care and Development Fund (CCDF) by overseeing implementation of State, Territorial and Tribal programs. The CCDF is a multi-billion dollar funding stream that helps low-income families to pay for child care so they can work or attend training/education. The program also promotes children's learning and development by improving the quality of child care. The OCC's Policy Division provides guidance on Federal rules and laws related to CCDF, oversees child care administrative data collection efforts, and manages budget formulation and performance measurement activities.
